AGREEMENT ON THE GLOBAL SYSTEM OF TRADE PREFERENCES AMONG DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Communication from Yugoslavia

The following communication addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on Trade and Development has been received from the Permanent Representative of Yugoslavia.

On behalf of the participants of the Agreement on the Global System of Trade Preferences among Developing Countries (GSTP), which are contracting parties to GATT, I am sending herewith copies of the Agreement on GSTP.

The Agreement on GSTP was signed at Belgrade on 13 April 1988 by the developing countries indicated in Annex I of the Agreement. The Agreement entered into force as of 19 April 1989 for the GSTP participants which are contracting parties to GATT as indicated in the attached list.

This Agreement is hereby notified to the Committee on Trade and Development in accordance with the Decision of 28 November 1979 of the GATT CONTRACTING PARTIES, commonly known as the Enabling Clause.

Two copies of the text of the Agreement will be sent to the contracting parties not listed in Annex I of the Agreement. The schedules of concessions of the signatories which are contracting parties to the General Agreement are available in the secretariat, Development Division, Room 2010, for consultation by delegations.
